PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

HELLO!!!! To All WPS Friends.

It's June, and summertime is upon us. Hope you are having some great fun.

Our Valentine Dance was so successful we thought we would plan something special for the June 12 dance at the Arlington Elks Lodge. It will be an event (and excuse) for all of us to have a fun time. So, we're planning a "SENIOR PROM" themed event, hopefully bringing back some good memories from long ago. So, guys and gals, get out what you wore for your senior prom if you still have them (and assuming that they still fit!) or maybe something else in your closet that's appropriate. If not, Amazon and resale shops have period clothes that are priced for your pocketbook. Join us for some great 50s/60s/70s/80s music by "Ben & Doug" completely suitable for listening, socializing, and dancing. We will have a parade of clothing from each decade, and we'll also be crowning a KING and QUEEN.

FOOD will be served from 5:30 to 6:30 PM. We don't want to run out of food, so if you are planning to attend or want to reserve a table, PLEASE call Nancy at 812-593-1578 for a reservation. Get ready for a fun evening. Of course, there will be surprises. Hope to see you there. Please remember that this is a fundraiser and open to the public. Bring your friends and family.

DINNER HOSTS/HOSTESSES are still needed in ARLINGTON and MANSFIELD.

The question has been asked if the dinners must be held at different places each month? NO. The dinner can start anytime between 4:00 to 6:00 PM at the same place or at different places as you decide. It is only necessary to hold the dinner on the same week of every month, on the same day of the week, and at the same time of day (example: third Wednesday of the month at 5:00 PM). The location is your choice. You may use the same restaurant every time, change the location every month, or just change the location occasionally. Diane Bowman, our Volunteer Coordinator, (817-996-2337) will help you get started. So PLEASE, step up and give our members a great place to eat and socialize. The organization and your fellow members will be very grateful. Refer also to page 5 for more information.

Phyllis Weisheit, President

OUTREACH GRIEF SUPPORT

Good morning, my WPS Sisters and Misters. Wishing you a blessed day.

Grief is the painful process of dealing with loss. Someone dies, and the closer we are to that person, the harder it is when we lose them. Grieving after loss is a very personal thing, and there is no single right way to grieve.

However, understanding how grief works will prepare you better for coping with loss and being able to go forward with your life. Our WPS classes help you do just that. It is a survival course especially designed for widowed men and women only. Only those who are widowed understand this particular kind of grief.

The process of grieving is far from straightforward. At times you may feel like you are losing your mind. Here's the thing... you're not! This is a normal reaction for dealing with the trauma of grief.

Try not to pretend you're okay. Be real. Attempting to ignore the pain of grief by "being strong" won't work. It will only eat you up inside. When you don't grieve, you stop yourself from healing.

It is important for you to accept the reality that someone you love has died. Call it what it is. If you lost someone, tell people, and let them know how you feel about it. Don't bottle it up. Be honest about how you feel. Let them know you not only lost the love of your life, but you also lost the life you lived. When we encounter grief and loss, we primarily hear of the main loss, "the person who died." What we don't often hear about are the secondary losses. I didn't even know what that meant until I experienced it. Secondary losses are the people and things we lose after our spouse dies or situations you must deal with related to the death. These include co-workers of our spouse, friends that were more theirs than yours, their family, children, people you shared hobbies or activities with, neighbors, your friends, and coworkers. Other losses: loss of financial security, physical security confidante, best friend, decision help, normal, routine, traditions, couple friends, shared dreams, anniversaries, expected future, identity, shared past, inside jokes, intimacy. The people we counted on to be there for us, who are now uncomfortable because our spouse died. Have I missed any?

WPS will be your companion through this. Try us! Happy Father's Day.

Hugs!

Ruth Turner, Outreach Chairman & Certified Grief Support Facilitator
